

THE PROPRIETOR OF

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

SQUARE DEALING

Clothing Store.

Gives the following reasons why he dose not have to give a pair of shoes to sell his suits:

1 Our goods never have been moved from Riverton to Red Cloud to Guide Rock and back because they are shop worn.

2 They are not mixed up with sugar and molasses.

3 The quantity I buy and sell enables me to buy and sell at less prices.

4 Besides I pay for all my goods inside of ten days, therefore giving me advantages over others who do not do it, which my customers get.

5 I have not marked up my goods so as to afford to give a pair of shoes with every suit.

6 My prices will be and are now lower than my competitor sells at, shoes included, and we can give you a stock large enough to select from, and not a mere remnant of shop worn goods.

Remember the GRAND PRIZE DRAWING ends JULY 4th.

Respectfully yours,

C. WIENER, Prop.

Wiener's New block.
RedCloud.

BLADEN is the name of the new town on the B. & M. extension near Wells or Pickleville. Bladen is located nicely about a half a mile east from Wells and has lofty aspirations for future greatness.

A SPECIAL reporter was sent out, who made careful inquiries of all suspected parties, and not a man in Red Cloud could be found who lost on that little nutshell racket circus day. This is rough on Hastings and Riverton.

C. J. JOHNSTON has about 70 head of cattle in his herd. Al Hunt and corps of kid assistants perform the journal round up act and form an escort to the frisky kine to and from their various homes to the pastures green.

The total assessed valuation of Red Cloud is $355,000, as returned by the assessor. The real valuation is considerably in excess of the above sum. There is $15,000 more assessed valuation than was shown on the assessment rolls of 1885.

A RIVERTON banker came to Red Cloud to see the circus. He thought the little ball was under a certain little shell and backed his opinion with a ten, but that little ball didn't happen to be under that designated little shell, and—well there were lots of others that couldn't see just how the old thing worked.

We understand His Honor, Judge Gashin, is a candidate for congressional honors in the second congressional district of Nebraska. The Judge is an able exponent of the law and might be a success as a law maker, but unfortunately for himself the gentleman marches to the tune of the wrong hand whose inevitable course is via the Salt River route.

NEXT Sabbath, June 13, will be Children's day at the Methodist Church. A sermon for the children will be delivered in the morning. In the evening the exercises will be conducted by the children. An interesting program consisting of songs, recitations, etc., has been prepared, which is intended to be particularly pleasing to the little ones, and also to those of mature years.

A. O. U. W.

On last Tuesday the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska, which is now about 2500 strong, met at Grand Island for the purpose of organizing a Grand Lodge for the jurisdiction of Nebraska. There were present some of the more noted members of the order throughout the United States, among whom were Supreme Master Workman Brooks, Grand Master Workman Rogers, Grand Medical Examiner Richardson, all of Missouri, besides about 120 delegates from different parts of the state. At 11:30 a.m. Supreme Master Brooks called the assembly to order, and a committee on credentials was appointed, and while the committee were deliberating the brethren filed in time with pleasant speech making.

After dinner the Grand Lodge got down to business and on motion the grand officers were elected. The Chiefs must say that the Grand Lodge

was made up from among the people of our growing state, and men too who are earnest workers in the order.

The CHIEF is pleased to note the evident prosperity of the order in the State of Nebraska, and in fact the United States over. There were four representatives from Webster county, viz

Guide Rock Lodge No. 49, ably represented by our worthy friend, J. B.

Mulford, and Red Cloud Lodge by J. L.

Miller, H. W. Brewer, and the editor of THE CHIEF. We take great pleasure in wishing the order universal success.

God speed, and prosperity in the noble work which it has set out to accomplish every day.

THE Webster County Teachers' institute for 1886 will be held in the Red

Cloud High School building, beginning on July 19, 1886, at two o'clock p.m.

and continuing three weeks. The instructors are Wm. Smith, professor of mathematics, York College; W. C.

Peking, superintendent of city schools;

Red Cloud; S. B. Hunsaker, principal of schools; Woodstock; H. D. B. Worley,

professor of music; Chas. W. Springer, county superintendent, conductor.

In sending out our annual greeting to the teachers of Webster county, and inviting them to attend the institute

we recognize the benefit derived from former work of this kind. It is seen in a better grade of teachers, more enthusiasm in the work, and a higher appreciation on the part of the patrons.

All schools should be closed during the institute. The county superintendent may at his discretion revoke

the certificate or refuse to grant a certificate to any teacher who refuses to attend the county institute.

See law. See v. Sulzby X.

Students attending will pay a fee of one dollar

qualified teachers free. All branches required for first grade certificate will be taught. Bring such books as you have. Occasional lectures, both day and evening. Board reasonable. For further particulars call on or address
